Introductory Notes 1164684

When a boy I was interested in my family, as was my father before me. He often told us children of his boyhood days in Carroll County, Maryland; of his grandfather, John Bowersox, who lived near Jacob's Mill in the Hanover section of Pennsylvania; of his uncles, especially his Uncle Daniel, whose homes were in that part of the country. After a visit with his uncle some time in the 1890's, father talked much about his grandfather's brothers, Jacob, Valentine, Christian and E. Daniel, who lived at Westminster, Maryland and had kept in close contact with his brothers. He knew more than any of the others about them.

It was these talks of father's that enthused me to attempt to learn more of my progenitors. I wrote E. Daniel Bowersox of Westminster, Maryland for such information as he might have about my ancestry. I received a letter February 23, 1894, with the information that has been the foundation of my research. This letter is published in full in another section of this book.

In 1926 I made a visit to the old home of my father at Jacob's Mill, where I met and visited Henry Bowersox a first cousin of my father, a son of Daniel Bowersox. It was here I made a discovery. He had in his garret a box filled with old papers, many of them brown with age and very fragile. We found a discharge given George Adam Bauersachs for services in Berks County, Pennsylvania Militia during the Revolutionary War; an Oath of Allegiance to Pennsylvania and Maryland; old deeds for land on Pine Run Hundred; sale bills; death notices; burial certificates; receipts given by the sons of George Adam Bauersachs for their share of his estate and many other documents.

The receipts given for the George Adam estate gave me a true history of the family. It was administered by John Bowersox, George Adam's oldest son. We also found receipts signed by all the children of John Bowersox for their share of John's estate, which was administered by Henry Bowersox, now living at Jacob's Mill, Pennsylvania, on the old homestead of John Bowersox.

It was 1926 when I began my research work. I received my mailing list from city directories in every city I visited, and from libraries of city directories. There I made up a list of nearly four hundred names and addresses. I am sorry to say I received only one answer to every ten questionnaires sent out. It might be interesting to state that the information received came largely from the women of the clan.

After about fifteen years I had a sufficient knowledge of the early members of the family to start building my tree. I was never discouraged. The work was fascinating even though I encountered many who were too busy to be bothered. Strange enough some of the latter later became some of my most ardent helpers, and cleared much of the history and chronology from the third generation in America to the present.

I sent letters to the Burgomasters of many of the leading cities in Bavaria, enclosing crisp new one dollar bills for their trouble. From some I received very courteous replies. I secured from a government bureau, a book listing U. S. consuls in Bavaria. From a few of these I received some data as will show elsewhere in the contents of this book.

PREFACE

This geneology of the Bowersox family presented many problems to its author. As is the case in many families, no records had been kept, and only the most recent family history was readily available. He spent many years making inquiries, and traveled over the entire United States of America gathering the data which appears in this document.

The facts that appear herein have been obtained from families in all parts of the United States, whose origin was in Germany, from family Bibles, from church records, from certificates recorded by state boards of health of various states, from tombstones in Pennsylvania and Maryland cemeteries, from muster rolls of the Pennsylvania Militia, from certificates of registration and from declarations of allegiance to the states of Pennsylvania and Maryland.

The author of this geneology, Dr. U. S. G. Bowersox, of Longmont, Colorado, gratefully acknowledges the assistance and information given by the following: Rev. Josiah Bowersox, of Portland, Oregon; Miss Myra Bowersox, of Wichita Falls, Texas; and Mrs. Margaret Mitchell, of St. Paris, Ohio; C. H. Bowersox, Cleveland, Ohio; Milton Bowersox, Independence, Kansas; Clay Bowersox, Shueyville, Iowa; and a Mrs. Steinmetz who is connected with the Pennsylvania State Historical Library, and to the many people who answered the questionnaires which he sent to them. He also has information received from the Burgomaster of Kronac, Bavaria. At one time he was able to contact one George Bauersachs, of Kronac, but received no answer to his latest correspondence.

Great care was taken that all names, and information concerning them should be most accurate, but it would be impossible to make this correlation of historical facts and family geneology absolutely perfect after an elapse of more than one hundred and seventy-five years, during which time no effort was made to assemble the Chronology of the Bowersox family, which included the span of years from 1665 to the present time.

The first definite trace of the family was found in Memmelsdorf, near Kronac, Bavaria, in the southern part of Germany. This was the birth of Johann Bauersachs, in that village, about 1665. He was a butcher by trade. Church records show that he married a lady named Elizabetha, (last name unknown), in Itzgrund, a village or town which we have been unable to locate. To this marriage was born one son, Johann Nikol (Nicol, Michael)* Bauersachs, who was born November 14, 1702; and who was baptized on November 15, 1702, at Memmelsdorf, Bavaria. He was a tailor by trade. In the year 1727, he married Elizabetha Goth, whose father was Vilton Goth and whose mother was Elizabetha Goth. To this union was born four children, namely: Johann Valentine, July 7, 1741; George Adam, February 26, 1744, and Elizabetha and Maria Barbara, for whom we have no dates, and of whom no further trace could be found.

* The names Johann Nickol, Johan Nicol, Johann Michael, found in "Archives of Old Settlers of Pennsylvania", can be proven to be the name of our progenitor. The names more frequently appear on deeds, church records and other documents as Johann Michael Bowersox. Michael is a family name.

Records show that John Valentine and George Adam were confirmed into the Lutheran Church at Old Goshen Hoppin, in Pennsylvania, in March 1761. The last appearance of the name Johann Michael Bauersachs on the communicant list was March, 1756. It was, however, in 1750, when Johann Michael and his wife and two sons sailed for America on the Ship Royal Union.

Historical records show that a Paul Bauersachs (also spelled Paulus) came to America a single man in 1740 and settled in Penn Township, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania. (Later Northumberland County was divided and Penn Township was in Snyder County.) His descendants had the same Christian names and to this day have the family characteristics and appearances.

The author of the Michael family history accepts these and many other findings as sufficient evidence to classify Paul Bauersachs as a son of Johann Bauersachs who was born about 1665.

The original spelling of the name was Bauersachs, of which the literal translation is "Good Farmer". The name has changed many times, as will be noted in the Chronology. This was caused partly by natural modernization and partly by mistakes in records.

The racial origin of the family is somewhat in doubt. The family came from that part of Bavaria which was invaded by the Goths in the third century and which was later taken and subjugated by the Franks, so the family is probably of mixed blood, Goth and Frank, with a possibility of Hunn and Nordic. However the melting pot has been busily boiling and many other races have been added to the family since that day.

There are many families in this country named Bauersachs, Bowersox, or Bowersock, some of whom are related, and some of whom are not, and whose forebears came to America after ours had been here for several decades. After a lengthy research, a few of these families were linked to ours, but most of them are of another line.

We believe that the Bowersox family, as a whole, will compare favorably with any family which immigrated to this country. There have been, undeniably, a few black sheep, but for the most part, the family seems to be fairly religious, patriotic and morally straight.

The family has been given to agriculture, for the most part, but members have been found in almost every line of endeavor. There have been soldiers, lawyers, doctors, statesmen, educators, engineers, ministers, mechanics, tailors and merchants.

The author of this geneology, my uncle, traveled far for much of the information herein contained. In many cases he met with disappointment, finding records destroyed, gravestones disintegrated, and all traces lost. He felt, however, that it was all worth while, because he gives those of us, of the Bowersox clan, a glimpse of the past by which we may well guide our future, and hopes that this record which he has started will be continued as long as any member of the family is in existence.

George Adam Bauersachs was born February 26, 1744, in Memmelsdorf, Germany. In 1750 he came to America with his parents, Johann Michael, and Elizabeth Goth Bauersachs, and his brother Johann Valentine Bauersachs. They arrived on the ship Royal Union from Rotterdam, last from Portsmouth, commanded by Clement Nicholson. The family settled in Union County, Pennsylvania, later moving to Maxetaney Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania.

He was confirmed to the church March 15, 1761. (*1)

He grew to manhood in Berks County, where he met his wife, Magdalene Rauenzaner. We have no record of when he was married, but do have a baptismal record of when their oldest child was born and baptized. He was John Bowersox, born October 20, 1770; baptized November 11, 1770, and sponsored by Valentine Bauersachs and Barbara Schlonecker, brother and sister-in-law of George Adam. (*2)

The identity of Magdalene Rauenzaner as the wife of George Adam is made through records found at Metz Church, Rockland Tp., Berks County, Pennsylvania, when George Adam and Magdalene were sponsors at the baptism of a child of Valentine and Barbara Bauersachs, Jan. 25, 1767.

George Adam and Magdalene lived near their original place on Pine Run Hundred and raised their family of six boys and three girls.

George Adam Bauersachs died March 8, 1817 and was buried March 11, by a Mr. John Crab. We have no positive record of where he was buried.

Magdalene Bauersachs died Sept. 24, 1823, and was buried by William Schrover. There is no record of her place of burial. Her son Christian died October 13, 1823, and was buried by William Schrover. Family records of the Christian Bauersachs family show Christian was buried near Uniontown, Maryland. Being buried by the same man as her son and supposing mother and father would be buried at the same place, we conclude that George Adam and wife were buried near Uniontown, Maryland.

Some records of George Adam's that were found were those of his oath of Allegiance to Pennsylvania before Samuel Ely on March 28, 1778. He was a member of the Berks County Militia, Second Battalion, Seventh Class, and served his allotted time. He was discharged April 17, 1770. The discharge was signed by Casper Schmick, Captain.

On June 19, 1770 he took an oath of allegiance to the state of Maryland, where he moved after his discharge from the Berks County Militia. He settled in Frederick County, Maryland, near Silver Run, at a place known as Pine Run Hundred, ninety-eight acres of land described by meets and bounds.

The original copies of his oath of allegiance to Pennsylvania and Maryland, his discharge from Berks County Militia, description of land in Pine Run Hundred, his last will and testament, which was made August 1, 1815, and receipts from all the children for their share of the estate are in the possession of Henry Bowersox, who lives near Jacob's Mill, Hanover, Pennsylvania. He also has the burial certificates of both George Adam and Magdalene and of Christian Bauersachs. Sale bills and receipts, also in his possession, show George Adam was a trader as well as a farmer.

Following are some of the official documents which belonged to George Adam Bauersachs, some of them are on file in the Historical Society of Berks County, Reading, Pennsylvania, others are in the possession of Henry Bowersox.

Epitaph

Holy, Holy is the woman

Holy, Holy is the man

That can stand the blow.

Memory of Father, Mother and Brother
by Daniel Bauersachs.

The following are a part of the many letters received from Mary Owen Steinmetz, who is a worker in the Pennsylvania Historical Society, and who has contributed a great deal to the success of this book:

According to the church records of the New Hanover Lutheran Church, Valentine Bauersax and Barbara Schlonecker were married December 27, 1764. It seems therefore, logical, that George Adam Bauersax and Valentine Bauersax were brothers and the Mary Elizabeth Bauersax who appears as a sponsor for Mary Elizabeth, daughter of George Adam Bauersax in 1774, was a sister.

A Michael Bauersax came to America in 1750 and seems to be the only one to qualify as the father of the above.

Unfortunately there are no muster rolls of Capt. Casper Schmick's Company on file. There are however, two rolls of this company contained among some class fines, which simply means that the men did not attend Battalion exercises. The Pennsylvania Archives, Third Series, Volume 6, pages 279-303, contains the names of Casper Schmick's Company and on one roll he is given as George A. Bowersax and on the other roll as Adam Bowersax, as of the Seventh Class.

Enclosed find the "Oath of Allegiance" of George Adam Bowersax. This Oath was taken to show their Allegiance to the Colonies and can be used for admission into the D. A. R.

The discharge papers of George Adam Bowersax proves two things, that Casper Schmick's company was in service, and that George Adam Bowersax of Pennsylvania removed to Frederick County, Maryland.

Very often it is difficult to prove that a man from one state is the same one later in another state.

The Hans Michael Bauersachs is I believe Nicholas Bauersachs, the father of George Adam Bauersachs, your ancestor. The Church Record states he came to America in 1750. I am assuming the clerk made a mistake in the Christian name.

Paul Bauersachs may have been related, but apparently he went almost at once to Northumberland County.

John Bauersachs was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, October 20, 1770. He moved to Maryland with his parents in 1779, and settled in Frederick County at a place called Pine Run Hundred. Here he lived until he grew to manhood and was married.

He married Miss Anna Margaret Studsen, August 18, 1794. She was born September 2, 1775. The records of John and Anna's children were taken from their family Bible which was written in German.

After their marriage, he moved to Jacob's Mill, a small village with an ancient stone mill, powered by a mill ditch and water wheel. A farm home and log barn which he built were still standing in 1928 and were owned by a grandson, Henry Bowersox, who inherited it from his father, Daniel Bowersox.

The estate of George Adam Bauersachs was administered by his son, John.

John Bauersachs died December 25, 1858, and his wife Margaret, September 13, 1865. They were buried in the Mennonite Grave Yard near Hanover, Pennsylvania.

John's estate was administered by his son Daniel, and passed on to his grandson, Henry, who has preserved the collection of papers from which much of this information has been taken, among which was the discharge from military service in the Revolutionary War belonging to George Adam Bauersachs.

Jacob Bowersox was born May 1, 1803 on a farm near Jacob's Mill, Hanover, Pennsylvania, and grew to manhood in that vicinity. He, as most young men of that period moved west or south where it was not so crowded and better opportunities could be found. The last information received from him was a letter written from Haines P. O., Fauquier County, Virginia, in 1840. At the death of his father, December 25, 1858, search was made to deliver to him his share of the estate. No trace could be found. In the receptacle containing the papers of his father's estate was found a receipt signed by all the children except Jacob.

A questionnaire received from Mrs. Anna May Osmond Gothard, living in 3282 Liberty Avenue, Alameda, California, gave the first clew as to the whereabouts of Jacob Bowersox. She relates that when a small girl her grandfather, who bore the name of J. Bowersett, told her that through the influence of his wife and family he had changed his name from Bowersox to Bowersett. The same story came from another source. Research workers were employed to examine the records of Loudoun County Virginia, tax lists. They found the name J. Bowersett, but no Bowersox on tax list. No record could be found of when the name had been changed legally.

Through Anna May Osmond Gothard and George H. Hough, assistant attorney general of Illinois, some history of the family was secured.

J. Bowersett owned a large plantation in Fauquier County, Virginia, and had a large number of slaves. The story related that he was very humane to his slaves and after the war he freed them but none left the plantation for years.

Other references are S. L. Bowersett, Marshall, Virginia, Mary Hough Gothard, 426 64th Street, Portland, Oregon, and George H. Hough, assistant attorney general, state of Illinois, 500 Parkway Drive, Chicago, Illinois.

PERSONAL HISTORY OF DAVID F. BOWERSOX AND FAMILY

By his son, John R. Bowersox

My father, David F. Bowersox, was born May 6, 1811 and died March 6, 1884. Our mother's (Matilda Crawford) birthdate is not known; but she died July 5, 1879. Their family consisted of seven boys and one girl. The first two boys died in infancy and were buried in the Bauchman's Churchyard, Carrol County, Maryland.

John R. and David were also born at Bauchman's Mill. Mary Elizabeth was born on a farm known as Lawyers in Carroll County, Maryland, a few miles west of the Bauchman's Mills. Jerome was born in Adams County, Pennsylvania on a farm about six miles south of Gettysburg. Joshua was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, at Sandhams Mill, about eight miles north of Dayton, Ohio, Post Office Little York.

My first recollections date back to about the time sister Mary was born at Lawyers place. We moved from the Lawyer place to Bixler's Mill in 1848, where I attended my first term of school. In the spring of 1849, we moved to Basehors Mill in Adams County, Pennsylvania, about four miles east of Littlestown. In 1852 we moved to a farm about six miles south of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. We went to Montgomery County, Ohio, eight miles north of Dayton, to Sandhams Mill in the spring of 1854. Again in the fall of 1855 we moved to Uncle George Bowersox's farm about two miles east of New Madison, Dark County, Ohio. In 1859 we moved to the Allen farm south and east of New Madison, Ohio. While I was in the army in 1861 the family moved to the John Mickesell farm north of New Madison, Ohio, and two or three miles east of Hollansburg, Ohio, and later on, to the Puterbaugh farm. In February 1870, they made public sale of farm implements and moved to Knox County, Illinois, about seven miles west of Galesburg on the Aaron Bowers farm. Here they bought farming implements and raised a crop. Disposing of the farm implements at a sale in February 1871, they moved with their family to Republic County, Kansas, in March.

Father homesteaded the south-east quarter of Section twenty-seven, township two south, range four west. He improved the land, making it their first real home.

Mother died July 5, 1879. They are both buried in the Union

Valley cemetery, one mile north of their home. Brother Isidore's family now owns the old home.

Sister Mary married Winslow Lamb in the fall of 1867 and died August 13, 1869 at Hollansburg, Ohio. She was buried at New Madison, Ohio, in the old cemetery beside Uncle George Bowersox.

The following historical record was written by John R. Bowersox, a son of David F.:

Our parents, David F. and Matilda Crawford Bowersox, never had a home of their own until coming to Kansas. They made many changes during my childhood.

Father was a miller by trade. He learned the business under the supervision of his brother George in York County, Pennsylvania. At Bauchman's Mill he worked as a miller on a salary. While on the Lawyer's Place he worked in a limestone quarry near by. At the Bixler's Mill in 1848, he worked on a salary of one hundred and fifty dollars a year, house-rent and flour for the family furnished. While living at the Wikert place in 1852, he worked on a farm in the neighborhood at day work, getting from fifty to seventy-five cents a day. While here he was persuaded by his brother George to move to Ohio. George was in the milling business at New Madison, Ohio. In the spring of 1854 he moved to Montgomery County, Ohio to Sandham's Mill, eight miles north of Dayton, where he ran a mill on shares. This venture turned out unprofitable and in the fall of 1855 we moved to Eldorado, Ohio, about five miles south of New Madison, where a new mill was built. Father took charge of it on a salary, but it closed down in February 1856. We then moved to Uncle George's farm east of New Madison, bought a team of horses (the first we ever owned) and farm implements and turned farmer. Father continued this occupation up to his death in Republic County, Kansas in 1884.

Our mother, Matilda Crawford, was born and raised in Carroll County, Maryland, east of Westminster, the county seat. The Crawfords came to America in an early day; their native country was Wales. My mother had three brothers and four sisters: Charles, Joshua, Samuel, Jane, Mary Matilda, Charlotte, and Elizabeth. They are all dead. My grandparents died before I was born. They are buried at Bauchman's Churchyard in Carroll County, Maryland.

Grandfather Crawford had two brothers and one sister that I have seen. I visited one in Baltimore, Maryland and one in Carroll County on a plantation. He was a slave owner. Aunt Jane, an old maid, visited us quite often while we lived in Maryland.

A portion of the Crawford family is given below. Taken from E. Paul Erwin Records Jan. 18, 1941. Miami, Fla.

John R. Bowersox, oldest son of David F. and Matilda Bowersox, was born October 25, 1842 in Carroll County, Maryland. He came, with his family from Maryland to Montgomery County, Ohio in 1854. He resided there with his parents until he enlisted in the army for service in the Civil War. For a period of three years he was with the Company E. 5th Ohio Volunteer Cavalry and received an honorable discharge as Corporal.

After the war he returned to his people at New Madison, Ohio and on December 24, 1866 he married Gertrude Axer at Greenville, Ohio. After marriage they moved to Galesburg, Illinois. They later moved to a farm near Cameron, Illinois, two miles east and one hundred rods north of the C. B. and Q. R. R. He farmed here two years, then went to Kansas in 1870, where he homesteaded the S. W. quarter, Section 23, Township 2, Range 4 West, where he remained until retirement.

In the spring of 1871 he moved to this homestead, improved it, and made it his home until 1908, when he retired from farming and moved to Belleville, Kansas. He resided at 1792 K Street, five years. In November 1913 he moved to Longmont, Colorado and lived at 420 Coffman Street until the death of his wife. Then he returned to Belleville and made his home with his son Arlie E. Bowersox at his former residence.

Gertrude Axer Bowersox was born June 24, 1844 and died December 24, 1928 at the home of her daughter, Dora M. Bowersox Larsen, at Courtland, Kansas.

Gertrude Axer's father was an emigrant. He was a son of Johann Axer and was born in Lonsheim, Germany, Jan. 12, 1816. Came to America about 1837. One sister died in infancy, one brother died after he came to America. His mother died. Father married again. The step-mother was not good to the children, of which there were a number. Jacob was ruptured and in 1844, July 11, he died from strangulation of the hernia. He was buried in the old cemetery south of New Madison, Ohio.

Gertrude Axer's mother was also an emigrant. She was born April 30, 1823 in Dittelsheim, Rhein Hessen, Germany, and died December 23, 1891. Is buried in Hebron, Nebraska. Jacob Axer was her first husband. Henry Ebling her second. They were married in 1851. Gertrude was her only child by her first marriage. She had seven children by her second marriage. 1. There has not been found any records of the daughters of George Adam Bauersachs except those found in Baptismal records. Elizabeth and Catherine were married, the others we are not sure of. They were born in Carrol County, Maryland, at Silver Run, where all church records were lost by fire.

Paul Bauersachs was the son of Johann Bauersachs, who was born and lived in a city named Memmelsdorf in Bavaria, near Kronac. Johann had two sons, Paul or Paulus and Johann Michael, Nicol or Nikol.

Records have not been found telling when Paul was born or whom he married, but there are many telling of his family.

Paul first arrived in America and located in Penn Township, Snyder County, Pennsylvania, in 1740. Snyder county was formerly a part of Northumberland County. Researchers have found that Paul later qualified on the ship Betsy, James Armand, Master, to Philadelphia in 1771. He received his naturalization papers for Pennsylvania in 1778. He was a Northumberland Militia man during the years 1778 and 1779 and received an honorable discharge.

His home was in Center Township, Snyder County, Pennsylvania, about five miles north of Middleburg, Pennsylvania. He was buried March 7, 1806, at Hassinger's Cemetery near Middleburg.

Information received from Myra C. Bowersox, Dallas, Texas, states that the old farm home of Paul's was standing and being used as a residence in the year 1925.

Another contribution of Myra C. Bowersox follows:

In the book entitled GENEALOGICAL HISTORY OF THE GIFT, KERN, AND ROYER FAMILIES, by Aaron Kern Gift of Middleburg, Pa., (compiled about 1909) I found this:

"In the old cemetery attached to this church (meaning Hassingers' White Church) many thousands of the departed people of the Valley and hundreds of our ancestors, the pioneers of this locality, are laid to rest until the last trumpet shall call them to rise again. Among these are the following . . .

"Paul Bowersox came over from Germany in 1772. He is the ancestor of all the Bowersoxes."

"Northumberland County was formed March 12, 1772, out of parts of Berks, Cumberland, and Bedford Counties. Union County was separated from Northumberland by Act of March 22, 1813. Snyder County was formed out of the southern half of Union County by Act of March 2, 1855."

Reference was also made to a "Short History of White Church, written by Rev. J. P. Shindel, published in the History of the Susquehanna and Juniata Valleys . . . the organization by Everts, Peck & Richards." According to Gift, the first church was built in 1785 (that sounds a little late), the second, (rebuilt) 1798, and the third, 1872. (My impression is that there are some old graves under the last one—it was suggested that Paul's might be among them.) There were two J. P. Shindels, pastors and mainstays of that church: John Peter, the father (October, 3, 1787, to October 26, 1853), and John Peter, Jr. (born July 25, 1810).

In this book reference is made to St. Joe County, Michigan; Bellevue, Ohio, and Three Rivers, Michigan, and Mendon, Michigan. Some of the families mentioned, intermarried with Bowersoxes, seem to have drifted around those parts. This may or may not provide a faint clue to somebody's identity.

The following is a contribution by Heber G. Gearhart, Sunburg, Pennsylvania, through Mrs. C. M. Steinmetz, Reading, Pennsylvania:

Paul Bauersachs lived at the village of Centerville, (P. O. Penn Creek), now in Center Township, Snyder County, Pennsylvania. Centerville is situated five miles north of Middleburg.

He came from Germany in 1740. Lived in Penn Township in 1778 to 1787. Died near Middleburg in 1806. Buried in Hassinger's Cemetery, Snyder County, Pennsylvania, formerly Northumberland County.

(References Militia. Bartol's Revolutionary Soldiers of Union and Snyder Counties.)

March 7, 1806, letters of Administration of the estate of Paul Bauersachs, deceased, were granted to George Bowersox and George Spode, Securities to Michael Bowersox and Phillip Autter.

(References, Northumberland Will Book 2-13.)

Mary M. Kine is responsible for the following contribution:

Paulus Bauersachs arrived on ship Betsy, qualified December 1, 1771. (Pennsylvania Archives, second series, volume 17, Page 499.) This must have been the return from a visit to Germany.

A sketch of the family of Paul Bowersox appears in "Egles Notes and Queries", Annual volume 1899, pages 166-167.

Paul Bowersox, variously spelled, appears as a taxable in Penn Township, Northumberland County, 1778-1787. (Pennsylvania Archives, third series, volume 19.)

A warrantee for 114 acres of land in Northumberland County was taken by Paul Bauersachs, September 28, 1773. (Pennsylvania Archives, third series, volume 25, page 65.)

The name of Paul Bowersox's wife has not been ascertained, and so no mention is made of her in the settlement of his estate. It is presumed she died before 1806.

The name of Paul Bowersox was placed on file, as a Revolutionary soldier, by the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution at Washington, D. C., October 26, 1932.

Ancestral Service during War of Revolution, as follows—

The name of Paul Bowersox appears as a private from Northumberland County receiving depreciation pay as a soldier of the Revolution; and as a private in Captain Michael Weaver's Company—Northumberland County—as Rangers of the Frontier, 1778, 1783.

Mariah Bowersock married William Farrington in 1831. He died in 1843. October, 1838, the family had moved to Jay County, Indiana.

Mariah Farrington later married William Mendenhall, who was a widower with six children. To this union was born a son, William Mendenhall, making fourteen children in the family. They later adopted a little girl, Lib Slock. Even later they adopted two motherless grandsons, Dennis and Morton Slay of Port Huron, Michigan.

Mariah Bowersock Mendenhall, after the death of her husband, practiced the profession of midwife. She delivered 985 babies—with a record of not having lost a patient. Her first case as midwife was in 1840. She died May 18, 1911. Services were held by Rev. Corney of the Methodist Church, Silver City, Jay County, Indiana. The funeral was conducted by Marion Carpenter of Detroit, Michigan. She was buried in West Grove Cemetery. She was 98 years 16 days of age.

At the death of Mariah Farrington Mendenhall she had eight children, 55 grandchildren, 142 great-grandchildren and 36 great-great-grandchildren.

Dear Sir,

With further reference to your letter regarding your ancestors, you are informed that this office got in touch with the Evangelisch—Lutherische Pfarramt in Memmelsdorf, but was advised that nothing could be traced concerning the family Bauersachs. Further investigations were made at the Evangelisch—Lutherische Pfarramt in Altenstein, Unterfranken, which informed this office that according to the church books the name "Bauersachs" only appears there the first time in 1891. In that year one Karl Bauersachs, born in Fechheim, moved to the village named Todtenweisach and married there. The Evangelisch—Lutherische Pfarramt in Altenstein further states that the name Bauersachs is very general in the district of Coburg.

You are further informed that there are only two places by the name of Memmelsdorf in Germany, at both of which inquiry has been made and the result of which is herein mentioned. There is no Memmelsdorf near Darmstadt.

It will be very difficult for you to trace your ancestors, the only likely way being for you to appoint a special investigator skilled in such matters. This, however, would be rather expensive. Should you decide to want to appoint such an investigator, this Consulate General can give you the name of a person who is accustomed to deal in such matters, viz., Mr. Josef Pfeiffer, Hubertusstrasse 9, Munich, Germany. You will understand, however, that this name and address is given you without any responsibility on the part of this office.

Very truly yours,

Charles M. Hathaway, Jr.
American Consul General
